

Commissioning report for the northern pump station.

Flow rates were measured at three points across the manifold.

The survey concluded on the fourteenth of March.